

Participating retailers in the BCBSM Advantage Dollars Over the Counter + Food program

If you took 2022 Medicare certification training between July 15 and August 3, 2021 you have received incorrect information about the Advantage Dollars program. In the training, it was indicated that Meijer would be an in-network retailer, however, at this time Meijer is not participating in the Advantage Dollars retail network and members are not eligible to use this benefit at Meijer locations.

We deeply apologize for this oversight, and any inconvenience this may cause.
